DRAWING CONTEST.

Frank W. Wallick Receives First and Bessie M. Smith Second Prize.

A good deal of interest has been taken by the youngsters of the city in the prize drawing contest at Charles Mayer & Co.'s store on Washington street, which began last Monday. The Blaidsdell Paper Penci. Company offered two prizes for the best drawings by school children, the first a $5 gold piece, with a box of drawing crayons for the second. The drawings were posted in one of the windows of the toy store, and have attracted a good deal of attention. Representatives from the Journal, News and Sun decided the contest yesterday in favor of Frank W. Wallick, the thirteen-year-old son of John F. Wallick, superin-tendent of the Western Union Telegraph Company. The lad made an excellent drawing of his favorite violin, hanging near a shelf on the wall, on which rested a book and candelstick. Bessie M. Smith, of Westfield, Ind., was awarded the second prize. She choose for her subject a stack of books, one of them lying open across the others. With considerable deftness she brought out the jagged lines of the torn and mutilated edges of the open book. The three newspaper men had no idea of the names of the youthful artists until after the contest was decided. Mr. Mayer says that it was the intention to have the con-test limited to Indianapolis school children, nouncement of the contest, and the little girl's picture was not excluded. The judges considered two other pictures worthy of special mention—that of the front entrance of the Arcade and of a dog hitched to a cart. Frank Wallick, who won the first prize, is a very skillful violin player, and delights as much in music as in art.

A COWARDLY ATTACK.

Negro Strikes a Big Four Conductor, Rendering Him Unconscious.

As in-bound train No. 3 from Cleveland over the Big Four road was waiting at the station at Pendleton, about 5 o'clock Friday evening, Harry Maulden, colored, stepped up behind conductor Crowley and struck him a cowardly blow behind the ear, which rendered him unconscious for a quarter of an hour. Maulden boarded the train at Anderson, and when Crowley came to collect his fare he refused to pay, came to collect his fare he refused to pay, and when the conductor told him that he would have to pay or be put off the train, he became ugly and wanted to fight, but Carney Woods, another colored man, paid his fare for him in order to avoid trouble. He tried to pick a quarrel with the conductor at every opportunity, but Crowley paid no attention to him, and while the train was standing at Pendleton he made the cowardly attack mentioned. The train was delayed for fifteen minutes, after which time Crowley recovered sufficiently which time Crowley recovered sufficiently to bring in the train. He was considerably bruised, but returned with his train to Galion yesterday and is now off on a leave of absence for the purpose of prosecuting his assailant, who lives at Pendleton.

WORK FOR SOUND MONEY

NEW DEMOCRACY'S CAMPAIGN TO BEGIN NEXT WEEK.

Many Troubles in Local Popocratic Ranks-Chairman Holt Not Wanted and Rochford Incompetent.

Chairman S. O. Pickens of the National Democratic State committee, stated yesterday that the campaign of the sound-money Democrats in this State would be in full swing not later than Sept. 20, and possibly as early as Sept. 15. The first speech will be made by S. W. M. Cutcheon, of Minneapolis, at Peru, and an effort is being made to have D. W. Lawler, of St. Paul, speak at Fort Wayne next Friday night. Requests for speakers for ratification meetings have come from South Bend, Lafayette, Columbus and Vincennes and these will be supplied as soon as speakers can be got into the field. The managers of the National Democracy propose to begin a vigorous campaign as early as possible. It is no secret that the party contains within itself the brains and most of the oratorical ability of the heretofore united Democratic party and the fervor and eloquence displayed at the convention will be spread out over the country by means of speakers. This campaign will begin with the notification of the candidates at Louisville next Saturday, Sept. 12, and the managers look forward to that occasion as a great soundmoney demonstration. Senator Caffery, of Louisiana, has been called upon to make the address notifying General Palmer, and John R. Fellows, of New York, will make the address to General Buckner. Chairman Bynum has planned that the return journey of the candidate shall be by way of Nashville and Memphis, and General Palmer has been asked to approve this plan. If he and General Buckner consent to make the journey they will leave Louisville Monday morning, Sept. 14, speaking at Nashville that night and at Memphis Sept. 16, with platform speeches along the route. Thus the meetings planned upon these dates for John R. Fellows at Nashville and Memphis will prove to be much greater affairs than originally intended. Mr. Fellows will accompany the party and deliver speeches at these points along with the candidates. An effort is being made to have him return to Louisville and reply to the speech that is to be delivered there by Bryan on Sept. 14. The Southern States will require much of the immediate attention of the managers. The registration in Florida will begin within a couple of weeks and it is the intention to look after this matter all over the South and see that the vote which has | zations fifth and the floats of union merheretofore been silent largely on account of nonregistration is registered and of march. Each of the six divisions is to Mrs. Jefferson Davis's book on the life of her husband, where, in the expense account brought to the polls. It is not unlikely that in Alabama and Florida and possibly one or two other States of the South the Republican party will be induced to indorse the electoral tickets put out by the National Democracy, and it is not beyond the realm of possibility that in Alabama at least the Populists will join in the fusion movement, strange as it may seem to have the Populist organization work for sound money. The Populists of Alabama, however, are middle-of-the-road people and consider the preservation of their party organization paramount to all other questions and they fear that it may be swallowed up by the silver wing of the Democracy. In Alabama, as in Florida and other Southern States, all the Republicans can hope to do by such fusion is to hold those States from the Bryan column, for the electors put up, if successful, will vote for Palmer and Buckner. Such a contingency as the success of the National Democratic ticket in these States, throwing the election into the House of Representatives, is possible and has been considered. In this case the present House would elect and there would not be much question of a next. that in Alabama and Florida and possibly

There has been some discussion of a pos-sible reconsideration of the announced intention of removing the headquarters to Chicago on the ground that their location Chicago on the ground that their location there would be apt to cause considerable confusion in mail and telegraph matter, but this is not, in Mr. Bynum's opinion, a very grave objection. He argues that as the fight is to come largely in the States centering about Chicago that is the most convenient point for the headquarters and thither they will probably go. Chairman Bynum will go to Chicago next Monday to look up a location, and expects to transfer look up a location, and expects to transfer the headquarters there early the following

ROCHFORD NOT WANTED.

Popocrats Will Not Allow Him to Handle What Little Money They Have. There was a meeting of Democrats at the Grand Hotel yesterday morning to see what they could do to be saved from John Rochford and the general mismanagement of Popocratic county affairs. The meeting was composed very largely of men who were originally for gold, but have since declared for the Bryan ticket in order to keep in line with their party. Among those who attended were Thomas L. Sullivan, John W. Kern, J. E. Bell, Maurice Donnelly, Charles Barrett and Andrew Stephen. They came together at the request of the county candidates to see if something could not be done toward raising a campaign fund and carrying on a fight for the Popocratic ticket in Marion county. It is not a campaign secret that John Rochford is proving a miserable failure in his efforts to organize the coun-John Rochford is proving a miserable failure in his efforts to organize the county. In the first place he has been unable to collect enough funds to keep the machinery going. This is due partly to the fact that most of the Democrats who have means are acting with the National Democracy and do not feel like contributing to the Popocratic organization, and partly to the fact that those of the "now-in-line" element who are able to contribute do not care to contribute to Mr. Rochford, who, they declare, has surrounded himself with a lot of hangers-on who know no other style of campaign work than holding up candidates for beer money, and who cannot control any votes but their own.

At yesterday's conference the members discussed the feasibility of the idea of building up a separate organization in the county that could be trusted to put the money where it will do the most good, but no definite conclusion was reached. It is said that under no other circumstances said that under no other circumstances will this class of men contribute to the county campaign.

IN DEEP WATER.

Chairman Holt Is There to Stay, but Silverites Want to Oust Him.

The friendly manner in which Sterling R. Holt, chairman of the Popocratic State An unknown negro became engaged in an committee, met and mingled with the the convention a rumor was pretty generally circulated that Mr. Holt intended to resign and declare for the nominees of the convention. This he strenuously denied and still denies that he has any intention of resigning. A number of the Popocratic speakers who gathered here yesterday morning before scattering out to their Sat-urday afternoon and evening assignments discussed the situation very gravely. They understand that Mr. Holt is not making any effort to raise a campaign fund, but is depending entirely upon the national com-mittee for the sinews of war, and the desin all woods—Wm. L. Elder. LABOR-DAY PROGRAMME

A MORNING PARADE HERE BEFORE STARTING TO ANDERSON.

The Exercises at the Latter Place Will Include a Number of Addresses by Leaders of Union Work.

To-morrow is Labor day. The second State celebration of what is now one of the most popular holidays among the toilers and wage earners of the country will be celebrated at Anderson. An attractive and interesting programme has been prepared. Mayor Morey M. Dunlap, of Anderson, will open the programme at Riverside Park with an address of welcome in the afternoon, to which State President Robert E. Groff, of this city, will respond. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and D. A. Hays, secretary of the Green Bottle Glass Blowers, will speak on topics of general interest to organized labor. Besides the addresses, there is to be a long programme of athletic games and contests, for the winners of which cash prizes have been offered. There is to be a balloon ascension and a parachute leap by J. H. Baldwin, of Losantville, President R. E. Groff says that everything indicates that the celebration of Labor day will be a successful affair, as reports indicate that labor organizations from all parts of Hoosierdom will be at Anderson to join in the grand street parade at 11 o'clock. Indianapolis will march in the first division, following a platoon of police and the carriage of Major C. T. Doxey, the guest of honor, who will be escorted by the officers of the committees in carriages. Muncie and Delaware county will come second, Marien and Grant county third, organizations from Elwood, Alexandria, Summitville, Pendleton, Frankfort and Madison county fourth, Anderson organichants and manufacturers last in the line the losers. Another case he took from be preceded by a band.

The train for Anderson will leave here at 9:30 o'clock to-morrow morning, immediately following the street parade. The organizations will immediately get into line upon arrival at Anderson, as the parade there begins at 11 o'clock. At Anderson the parade will start on Fourteenth street, march north on Meridian to Ninth, west to Lincoin, north to Eighth, east to Main, south to Thirteenth, east to Pearl, porth to Twelfth, and east on Twelfth to Riverside Park. The fare from Indianapolis will be $5 cents for the round trip for adults, children under five free and two children between five and twelve will be allowed to use one ticket. Persons are be allowed to use one ticket. Persons preferring to do so can leave for Anderson at 1 p. m., returning on any train Monday and Tuesday. A reception committee will be in charge of the Federation Hall in An-derson, where baggage, flags, etc., may be

A feature of the amusements of the day will be the baseball games between the Anderson and Elwood teams—one in the norning and another in the afternoon. Refreshments will be served on the grounds. A selected programme of popular music will be furnished at Riverside Park during the afternoon. There will be a meeting of delegates at Federation Hall, Anderson, at 8 p. m., when all routine business will be disposed of and a place for holding next year's celebration Aside from the street parade there will be no celebration of the day by labor or-ganizations in Indianapolis. The parade is to form at Washington and Alabama streets and march thence west to Delaware street, north to Ohio, west to Meridian street, south around the West Circle to Washington, west to Illinois street, south to the Union Station, where the train for Anderson will be found in waiting. The parade will move promptly at 8:30.

The parade will form in the following order:

BIG SOUND-MONEY CLUB

EMPLOYES OF C., H. & D. ORGANIZE TO WORK AGAINST SILVER. Died Last Night from a Stroke of Par-

> Club Has 103 Members, and More than Half Are Democrats-Other Political Matters.

The employes of the C., H. & D. railroad met last night and organized a nonpartisan club to be known as the C., H. & D. Soundmoney Club. The meeting was held in the roundhouse, near State avenue, in a room formerly used for a machine shop. It has been provided with seats and platform and makes a very comfortable place of meeting. As the name signifies, the club is exclusively for the employes of the C., H. & D. road. A great interest was shown in the movement, and the first meeting was an enthusiastic success. When the membership roll was passed around for signatures 103 men attached their names and became members. Of this large membership the per cent, of Republicans and Democrats is about the same, with the balance probably on the Democratic side.

After the formal organization last night Lucius B. Swift addressed the club at some length on the question which prompted its organization. He said he had not been much of a partisan for a number of years past. He had voted for Cleveland, and had never been sorry for the fact. He intended he said, to vote for McKinley this time, not b-cause McKinley was the Republican ncm:nee, nor because of any particular qualities of the man, but because of the patform upon which he stood. He said he did not intend to eulogize any candidate, but to talk upon the money question.

Mr. Swift then proceeded to answer some of the claims of the silverites. He exploded the claim that more money would make prices higher by referring to France and Germany. In France there is $36 in circulation per capita, and in Germany $18, and yet prices in the two countries are about the same. He said there was needed only so much money as was necessary to carry on the trading, and when more was added it was superfluous. He then showed that 90 per cent. of the business of the United States is transacted on the credit system; that is, by checks and drafts, and that more money than is at present in circulation is not needed. As an example of what might result from the issuing of flat money, Mr. Swift cited the case of a continental soldier in 1791, who was paid $33,-333.33 for a month's salary. There was due him just $33.33, and it was necessary to pay him one thousand times that amount in the inflated printing-press paper of the time. The money was finally absolutely refused by the people, and the holders of it were of a soldier of the Confederacy, one item is given where $2,700 was paid for a suit of clothes. The argument that Popocrat Bryan is making to farmers that because they can sell wheat now for only one-half what it sell wheat now for only one-half what it was worth twenty years ago, they may feel conscience clear in adopting a plan which will permit them to pay their debts in money worth only half as much as it was when they borrowed it, Mr. Swift attacked by citing the example of the aluminium producer. Ten years ago he said this metal was worth $9 a pound; but now improved methods for separating it from the clay in which it is found has reduced it to 50 cents a pound. "Would it be fair," asked Mr. Swift, "for the aluminium producer to Mr. Swift, "for the aluminium producer to pay his creditors only one-eighteenth of what he owes because the value of his product has fallen to that extent?"

Mr. Swift took up many of the arguments of the silver men and answered them in a convincing manner, using statistics freely. He received the closest attention during the hour and a haif which he talked and was loudly applauded. The election of officers for the new club resulted as follows:

President—George W. Corberly, bookkeeper at freight office.
First Vice President—Thomas M. Conners, train dispatcher. Second Vice President-A. L. Langley, foreman in freight house. Third Vice President-Jerry Foley, section foreman. Secretary-L. E. Newsome, chief clerk to Superintendent Galloway. Treasurer-Thomas Whitson, general The club decided to hold its meetings regularly once a week and Saturday night was chosen as the time. At the next meeting the constitution and by-laws will be

REPUBLICAN TRAVELERS' LEAGUE. A Movement to Form a National Organization of Clubs. At a meeting of the Commercial Travelers' Republican Club last night a communication was read from the Michigan Republican Commercial Travelers' State League urging that a league be formed in this State to co-operate with Michigan, Wisconsin, Ohio and Illinois in forming a national league of Republican commercial travelers' .clubs. The Republican commercial travelers of this State are pretty well organized already, but in order to form a basis for a State league it is necessary to have more thorough local organization in the principal cities of the State. A committee was appointed, consisting of B. H. Prather, chairman, T. F. Ryan and W. H. Nicoles to carry out the plan proposed by the Michigan league. The committee will correspond with Republican commercial travelers in other cities and urge them to organize clubs to become identified with the State League. When this is accomplished it is the purpose to have delegates from Indiana attend a national convention, when the national league will be formed. It will work in harmony with the Republican national committee. Arrangements are being made for a big meeting at the Commercial Travelers' Hall rext Saturday night, when an address will be made by Hon, Jesse Overstreet, candidate for Congress from this district. The Baldhead Glee Club will be present to furnish music for the occasion. The Marion Club and other Republican organizations have been invited to be present, and the indications are that a very interesting meeting will be held.

The personal experiences related by the traveling men who are in the thick of the political battle are highly entertaining. Last night one member of the club said that he had observed that a great deal of effective missionary work is being done by his fellows.

"The first thing we do," said he, "is to throw our sample cases under a counter when we get to a hotel and begin talking politics. That's about all there is for us to do, as no one seems to care to buy our goods."

The club has a membership of several hundred active, intelligent workers, and has been regarded as a strong factor in campaigns of the past. The members of the club are determined that it shall do good work this year.

WOOD WORKERS ORGANIZE.

A Big Sound-Money Club, with Many Democrats as Members. A large number of men employed at the Emerich Furniture Company's plant, on West Morris street, near Pogue's run, and A Great Health-Giving Drink for Sepat Ballweg & Co.'s box factory, near by, have formed a nonpartisan sound-money club. It is the intention to enlarge the membership roll by permitting wood workers' from other furniture and wooden ware The Daily Reporter, the financial, law and factories on the South Side to come into the club. At present the membership is composed exclusively of men from the two factories first mentioned. As first organized the club was known as the Emerich McKinley Club, but it has been reorganized and given a new name. It will be known as the Wood Workers' Sound-money Club. as the Wood Workers' Sound-money Club.
Henry Holle is president, William Weber
vice president, William Jones secretary, William Rugenstein treasurer and Peter Hansen sergeant-at-arms. Henry Holle, the president, and William Weber, the vice president, have heretofore voted the Democratic ticket. There are ten other Democrats in the club from Emerich's factory, as well as quite a number from Ballwer's as well as quite a number from Ballweg's ployed at Emerich's who do not belong to it. They are men who have not decided how they will vote. Jacob Emerich, one of the members of the firm, says that the men have been allowed to do as they please about joining the organization.

The club will probably be uniformed and drilled to march in political parades. Meetings will be held in Emerich's factory every second week. In order to keep the men employed as much as possible the factory has not closed down entirely, although it is only open every alternate week. A meeting of the club will be held next week.

MARION CLUB WILL GO. Its Marching Club Will Attend the

Big Seymour Barbecue. At a meeting of the board of directors of the Marion Club held yesterday afternoon it was decided to accept the invitation from the Republicans of Seymour to attend the big rally to be held in that city next Saturday. A committee of leading citizens of Seymour came up to this city yesterday for the express purpose of extending the invitation to the club. The committee appeared before the board of directors and made the invitation as cordial as possible The uniformed marching section of the club will go in a body and will be accom-panied by the When Band. A special train will probably be run for the occasion. The Seymour rally bids fair to be the largest ever held in southern Indiana. Among the speakers of the day will be Senator Thurs-ton, of Nebraska; Representative Hanly and ex-Lieutenant Governor Hanna.

A Warren Township Poll. The Students' Lincoln League, wishing to ascertain the political sentiment of Warren township, took a poll of the farmers residing on the National road from Irvington to Cumberland. The beneficial influence that the acceptance letter of McKin-ley and the New York address of Harrison has exercised on the thoughtful farmers of the township cannot be overestimated. he silver craze which swept over the Nation two months ago was unmistakably felt in Warren, but the activity of the sound-money adherents has caused the farmers to flock to the standard of patriotism, protection and prosperity. Out of a total of 32 farmers interviewed between Irvington and Cumberland, one is for Palmer, four are for Bryan and twenty-seven are for McKinley. Cumberland, which has always been considered a Democratic stronghold, casting 255 votes for Cleveland and ninety-five for Harrison in 1892, is rapidly increasing its number of sound-mone men through the able efforts of the Republican speakers. The poll was taken o, Lawrence B. Davis and Sampsell W. Mans-

Chairman Hanna at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5 .- Chairman Hanna, of the Republican national committee, arrived in Chicago to-day and went immediately to headquarters at the Auditorium. Many prominent leaders were there to confer with him regarding the political situation in their respective localities. Mr. Hanna will remain here for two weeks, during which time he will personally conduct the McKinley campaign in the West. Not long after his arrival it was reported that the advisability of Major McKinley making short campaign trips next month was under consideration. Neither Mr. Hanna nor the Republican leaders would discuss the report, although it was admitted that the question had been under consideration. Political Notes.

The Harrison Republican Club, which was organized Friday evening at No. 474 West Second street, will meet again next Friday. Friday evening the Hobart Republican ver S. Clay was made permanent chairman, William M. Hill, secretary, and Edward W. Hawkins, treasurer. The club will meet again Monday.
